MAYOR'S URBAN PRIORITIES TO BE THE FOCUS

Orlando, FL - U.S. Conference of Mayors President Miami Mayor Manny Diaz will be addressing an audience of close to 1000 guests during the 2008 National Urban League Annual Conference in Orlando on Thursday, July 31, to talk about the mayors' urban priorities and agenda, in the midst of the 2008 presidential campaign.

Last month at the Conference of Mayors Annual Meeting held in Miami, Mayor Diaz, the newly-elected President of the mayors' organization, stated that Washington has ignored the role, value and promise of the nation's cities and metro areas - which is where 85% of American people live.
