Spouses and youth are welcome to attend all Conference evening social functions. Information on daytime family activities is available on the Host City Website.

Media Coverage

Unless otherwise noted, all plenary sessions, committee meetings, council meetings, and best practice forums are all open to credentialed press. All social/evening events are CLOSED to press.

All plenary sessions are streamed live on our YouTube, Facebook, and X channels.

The hashtag for the meeting is #Mayors2024.

Press Registration

All press must register and pick up credentials to attend Annual Meeting events. Press credentials may be picked up beginning at 7:00 a.m. on Thursday, June 20 at the press registration desk.

Video Filming

During the 92nd Annual Meeting, mayors are encouraged to film short video clips on key priorities of The U.S. Conference of Mayors. These clips will later be used on social media, via press releases, etc. — no videos will be used without approval from each mayor's team. Videos are being filmed by our video producer in the Brush Creek Room, 6th floor during meeting hours. If you have questions, please email social@usmayors.org.

Press Opportunities with Strauss Media

We are pleased to once again welcome our radio booking partner, Strauss Media Strategies. This year, the Strauss team will be working for the duration of the meeting out of the Spirit of Freedom Room, 6th floor, from the hours of 6:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. If you are interested in being booked on your local radio stations back home to convey the work you're doing as mayors and to promote all that you're learning at the conference to make your cities stronger, please email them at uscm@straussmedia.com or feel free to stop by the Spirit of Freedom Room while they are there and let them know of your interest.

USCM Information Booth

Stop by our USCM information booth to learn how to leverage your membership with The U.S. Conference of Mayors. The booth will be open during the conference to answer any questions you may have.

Resolution and Committee Deadline

The deadline for member mayors to submit proposed resolutions or change standing committee membership was Tuesday, May 21, at 5:00 p.m. ET.

Voting

Only members of a standing committee are eligible to vote on resolutions before that standing committee. Mayors who wish to record a no vote in a standing committee or the business session should do so within the mobile app.

Business Session Voting Credentials

Voting Credentials for the Sunday Business Session Vote will be available at the Conference Registration Desk beginning at 7:00 a.m. on Saturday, June 22.

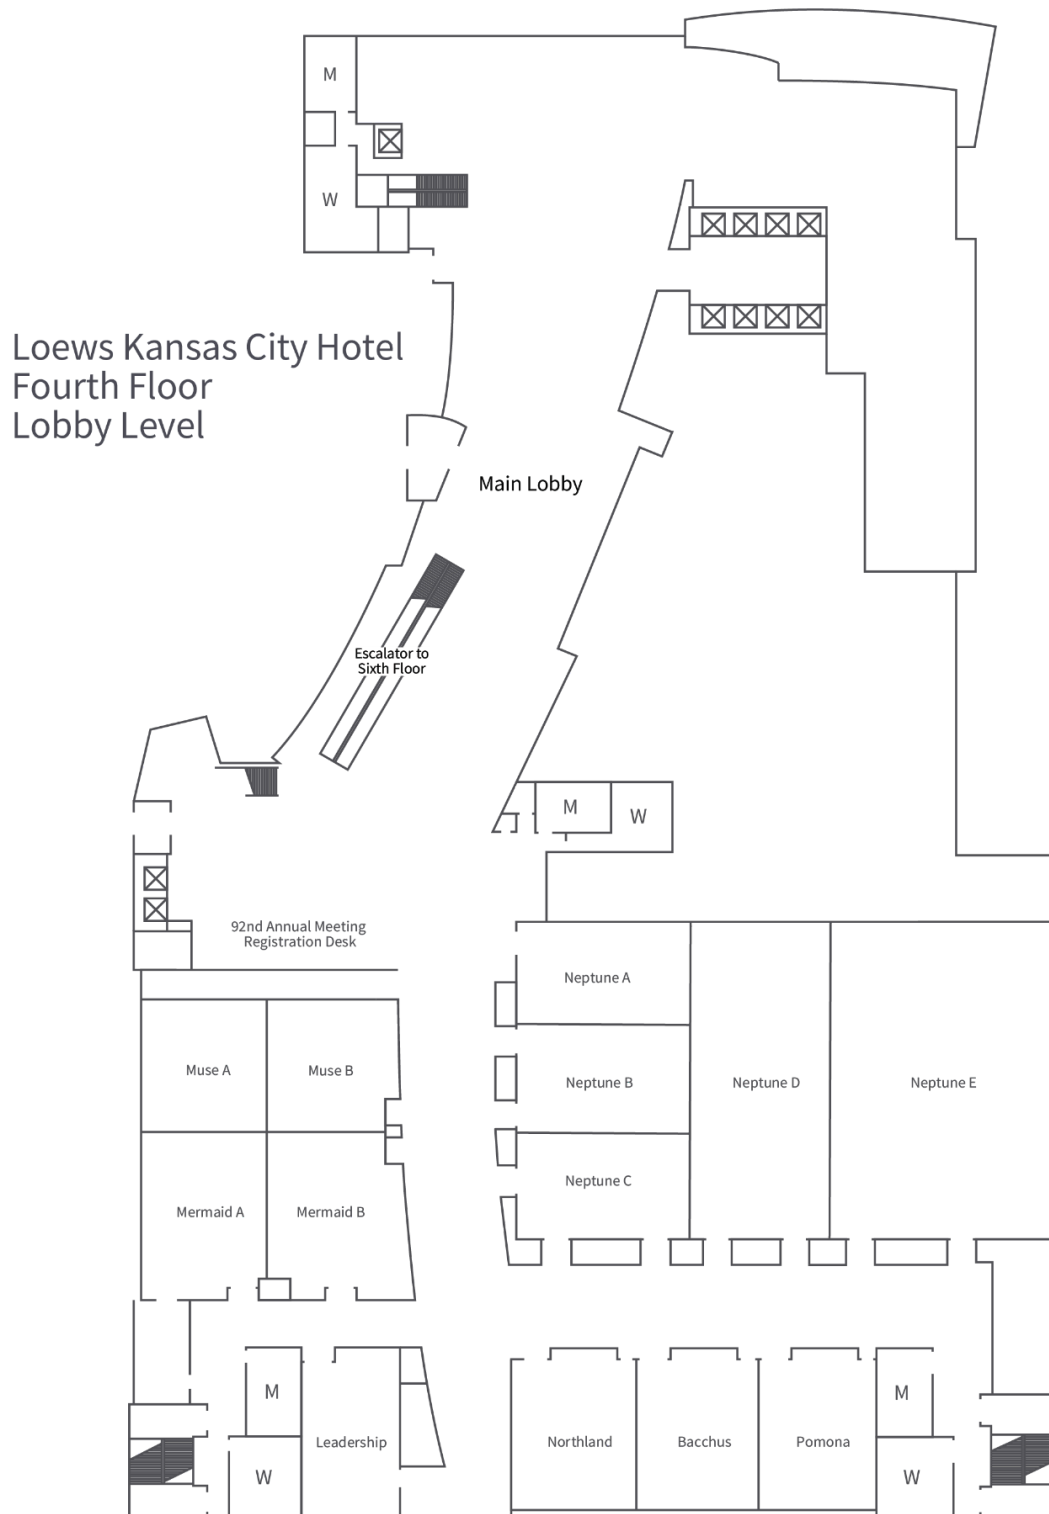

Official delegates must have their credentials in their possession to vote. There is one credential for each member city. If the mayor of a member city is registered, the credential will be issued to them. If the mayor is not registered and has not been in attendance at the Annual Meeting, a registered city official must have been designated in advance, in writing, to be the official delegate to receive the city's credentials.

If a registered member mayor anticipates that they will not be present at the business session, they may designate an alternate, who must be a registered city official to pick up their credential and exercise the city's vote on Sunday morning. Such an alternate, however, cannot have the floor to speak to any issue under discussion.

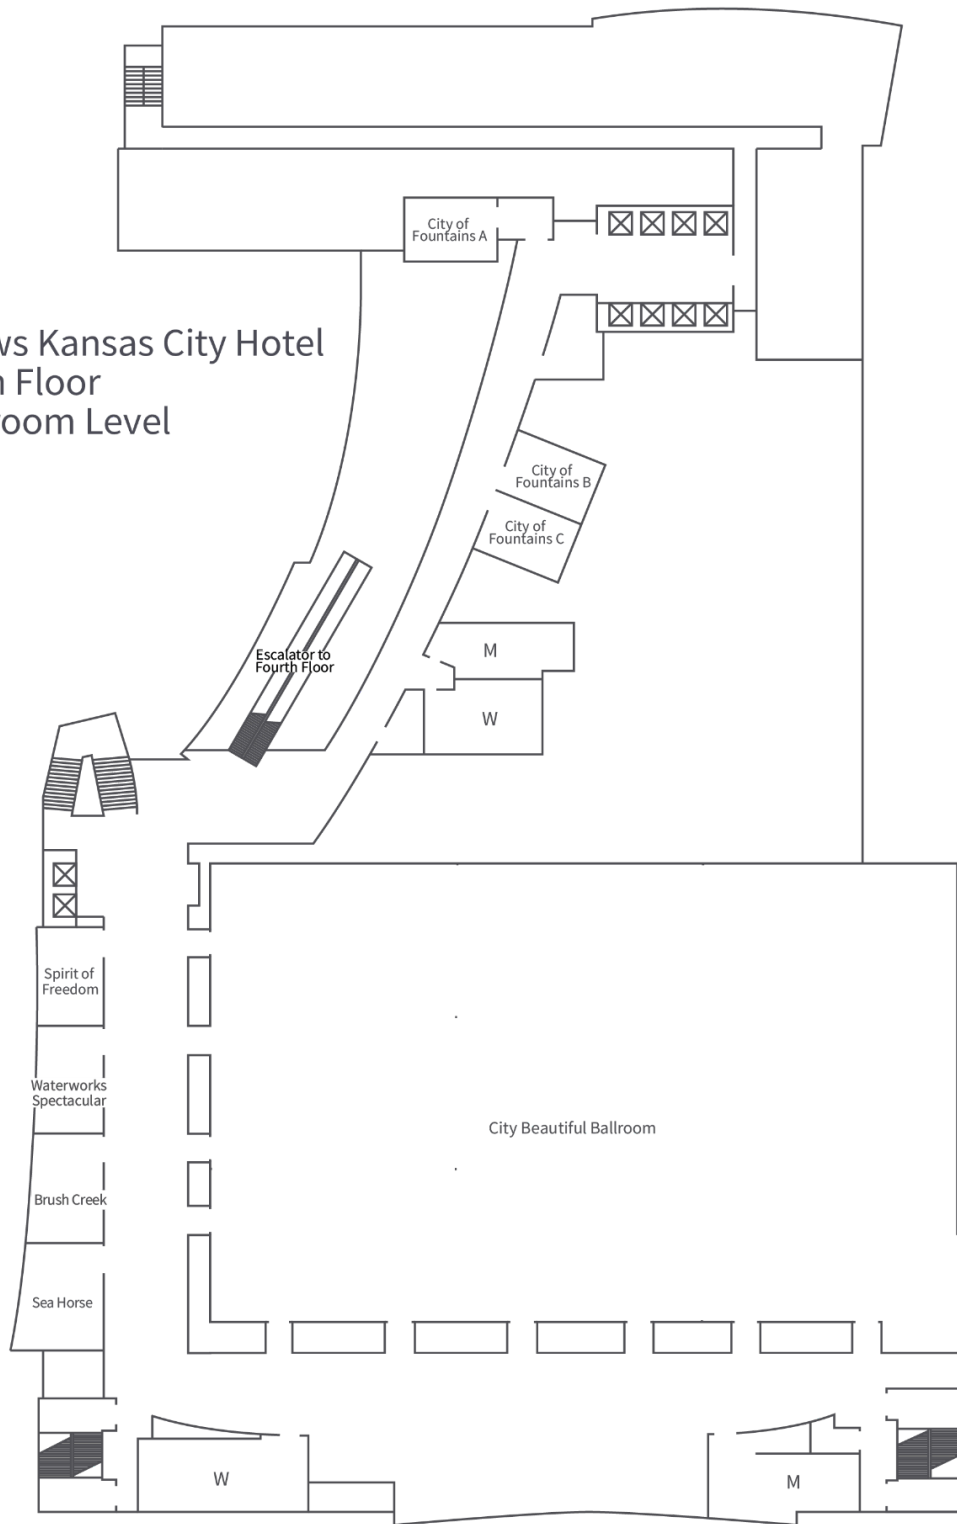

The appropriate form for designating an alternate may be filled out at the Conference Registration Desk between 7:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, June 22, and prior to the Business Session on Sunday, June 23.

Themes and Opportunities

Under the leadership of the 81st President of The United States Conference of Mayors Reno Mayor Hillary Schieve, key priorities to be discussed will include — but not be limited to:

- The Surging Mental Health Crisis
- Housing and Homelessness
- Public Safety
- Technology and Innovation
- “Creative Placemaking”
- Infrastructure Investment

Other priorities and opportunities include:

1. Direct engagement with high-level Biden Administration officials, Congressional leaders, as well as other key policy and thought leaders.
1. A Mayors-Only Discussion on Thursday afternoon focused on “Assuring Election Safety and Security.”
2. The consideration, debate, and adoption of policy resolutions submitted by member mayors. This will occur during the meetings of the 11 policy Standing Committees on Thursday, June 20 and Friday, June 21, and then during the official Annual Business Session on Sunday Morning, June 23.
3. Numerous opportunities for direct mayor-to-mayor engagement on a wide range of topics impacting cities of all sizes and in all regions of our Nation, and the sharing of best practices and innovative projects among mayors.
4. Priorities for the remainder of the 118th Congress.
5. Continued implementation of historic legislation passed by the 117th and 118th Congresses and signed into law by President Biden:
 - The American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) — $65.1 Billion for ALL Cities
 - The Bipartisan Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA) — $1.2 Trillion over 10 Years
 - The Bipartisan CHIPS and Science Act
 - The Bipartisan Safer Communities Act
 - The Inflation Reduction Act (which includes key USCM priorities related to climate change and health care affordability and access)
 - The Bipartisan Fiscal Year 2024 Omnibus Appropriations Acts.
6. A plenary discussion on “The 2024 Election and Female Voters: Strategies to Boost Voter Turnout” during a luncheon on Friday, June 21.
7. The inauguration of Columbus, OH Mayor Andrew J. Ginther as the 82nd President of The United States Conference of Mayors during a luncheon on Sunday, June 23.
8. Networking opportunities with USCM Platinum Partners and Mayors Business Council Members.
9. Evening events arranged by our Host Mayor Quinton Lucas and his host committee that will highlight the very best of Kansas City, MO — and give all attendees the opportunity to talk, share stories, and be together as part of the USCM family. You can see all that is happening by checking out the Host City Webpage.

MICD: Attaining Quality Urban Design through City Leadership

10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Mermaid A (4th Floor)

At the Mayors' Institute on City Design (MICD), we prepare mayors to be the chief urban designers of their cities. In this workshop, we will explore ways that you, as mayor, can embed design thinking and design excellence into your administration. From mayor's design awards to cabinet positions, to the design of city hall itself, how you shape your administration is key to creating more livable, equitable, and thriving communities.

MICD is a leadership initiative of the National Endowment for the Arts and The United States Conference of Mayors.

Energy Standing Committee

2:15 p.m. – 3:15 p.m.
Mermaid A (4th Floor)

Chair DANIEL J. RICKENMANN
Mayor of Columbia, SC

Consideration of Proposed Resolutions

Remarks Local Energy Issues Roundtable
Energy Committee Members are encouraged to make brief remarks identifying their local energy activities.

Best Practices Local Tools to Balance Urban Heat Zones and Energy Demand

Heat mapping technology can assist local officials in applying best practices to mitigate surface heat in cities with design and materials that can augment energy demand planning. Reflective coatings are one strategy to reduce surface temperature and heat storage by pavements and roofs. This process can also increase road service life under normal operating conditions because asphalt-based pavements wear and develop cracks due to higher surface and internal temperature ranges.

How Your City Wins by Spurring Innovation with Universities

3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Muse B (4th Floor)

You may never have thought of research and development partnerships with universities as a major economic and job development tool, as well as a means to address some of your city's most complex challenges. But this is the wave of the future, and the best news is that there is federal funding available to your city to help accelerate these partnerships. The National Science Foundation, through its Technology, Innovation, and Partnership program, is bringing funding to cities to help support mayors' priorities. Take back to your city ways city-university partnerships can bring innovation to your community, as well as receive federal support to do so.

City Scale Solutions to Your Climate & Sustainability Goals

11:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Neptune B (4th Floor)

Now more than ever, leaders must ensure buildings, communities, and cities can meet the challenges of climate change by reducing our carbon footprint and mitigating our risks in extreme weather. Hosted by the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC), this forum will explore how we can answer the urgent call for rapid decarbonization and building resilient cities and communities through the use of USGBC tools.

Mayors are implementing a range of place-based, community-driven solutions to combat the climate crisis. We will explore the key policies and innovative approaches each city leader is taking to accelerate progress in their respective cities. Knowing the tools available and how cities have leveraged them can accelerate your community's strategy towards achieving climate action goals.

Innovations in Digital Equity

11:15 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.
Bacchus (4th Floor)

Over 92 percent of all jobs require digital skills, yet approximately one-third of workers don't have the foundational digital skills necessary to qualify for these jobs. Access to tools and technology alone is not enough. Digital skills are key to navigating the current labor market and unlocking economic opportunity. Learn how innovative mayors are leading the growth and development of a more highly skilled workforce, recognizing that everyone benefits when the public sector partners with nonprofits and the private sector to connect and leverage vital resources to upskill workers.

Implementing the CHIPS and Science Act

8:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.

Mermaid B (4th Floor)

Over the last several years, semiconductors and other technology components have often been designed by U.S. companies but manufactured overseas. Driven by a combination of supply chain issues during the COVID-19 pandemic and national security concerns, Congress passed the CHIPS and Science Act in 2022. Today, the CHIPS for America program is helping drive manufacturing, research and development, and downstream economic development through major funding initiatives and investments in semiconductor development.

This session will dive into the progress made thus far by the CHIPS for America Program and examine ways mayors can support economic development from these new investments.

Progress in Renewable Energy and Efficiency

8:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.

Muse B (4th Floor)

The Conference of Mayors Climate and Infrastructure Policies supports a transition to clean energy in the Nation's cities. Community clean energy programs and projects are getting a boost from federal stimulus by way of investment tax credits, loans, and grants provided by Congress in the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA), and the Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). While renewable energy generation continues to grow, so does growth in plug-load and demand for electricity. This session provides an update on how renewable energy has grown in the United States over the last decade. Some case studies offer a variety of strategies for local action in renewable energy projects; and the outlook for energy efficiency opportunities and practices in community-based infrastructure.

- United States Department of Transportation's (USDOT) Build America Bureau will participate in the federal help desk session and can discuss infrastructure/TOD financing and technical assistance opportunities. The Bureau was established as USDOT's point organization for federal financing to help communities deliver infrastructure projects. The Bureau's programs feature technical assistance; low-interest, long-term financing for transportation projects; and best practices in project planning, financing, delivery, and operation. If you are unable to connect with a team member at the conference, please email BuildAmerica@dot.gov to discuss your projects.
- United States Department of Energy's (DOE) Office of Infrastructure is responsible for administering a dozen clean energy project categories that are eligible to claim tax credits or tax rebates for qualifying projects under the direct pay provisions of the Inflation Reduction Act (IRA). In the Office of Infrastructure, the State and Community Energy Program experts will be available to share information and technical assistance for clean energy projects, building energy efficiency and electrification, and other carbon emission reduction programs.

EVENING EVENTS

Pre Event: Mayor Quinton Lucas + National Women's Soccer League Fireside Chat

6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.
CPKC Stadium

Join Kansas City Mayor Quinton Lucas and the National Women's Soccer League for a fireside chat and pre-reception gathering. Hear from NWSL Commissioner Jessica Berman and others as they discuss the benefits of investing in women's sports teams and infrastructure, using Kansas City and CPKC Stadium as a case study for investment. Mayors in attendance will have the chance to discuss opportunities to grow the league's presence across the country following the panel.

Party at the Pitch

7:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m.
CPKC Stadium

Join us for an upscale tailgate with fun-filled live performances at the newly-opened CPKC Stadium, home of the Kansas City Current and the first sports stadium in the world built specifically for a women's professional team.

The evening will feature entertainment by:

Quixotic, an avant-garde immersive performance experience. Based in Kansas City, this contemporary cirque act of world-class performers has curated an unforgettable performance under the stars.

Cimafunk, a Grammy-nominated, Afro-Cuban, magnetic performer who fuses Caribbean groove with New Orleans-style brass. Cimafunk made history in April as the first Cuban-born artist to play Coachella.

Sponsored by Macquarie and Payit

Transportation: Evening event shuttles will run between the Loews Kansas City Hotel and CPKC Stadium from 5:45 p.m. to 10:15 p.m.

Suggested Attire: Tailgate Chic – Comfortable shoes and light summer clothing are suggested for this outdoor event.
